

Promoting a Healthy Life Style

- Recreational Biking Day & Night
- Hiking Opportunities
- Educational Opportunities
- Educating Park Patrons
- Dark Skies for Star Gazing
- Promoting Community Cohesiveness
- Nathan Martens Arizona Fallen Heroes Memorial
- Equestrian Activities for Families and the Community
- Proximity to urban Centers

Designated Treasures of Pinal

Superstition Mountains	Boyce Thompson Arboretum	White Canyon	San Tan Mountains
Casa Grande Ruins National Monument	Table Top Wilderness	Picacho Peak State Park	San Pedro River

Benefits of open space and historic sites are:

- Opportunities for recreation: hiking, riding, camping
- Preservation of significant historic sites
- Maintenance of important eco-systems
- Educational opportunities
- Community cohesiveness and well-being
- Increased property values
- Tourism potential
- Attracts companies & economic growth
- Contributes to quality of life
- Encourages healthy life-style
- Hunting
- Wildlife Viewing

The Treasures of Pinal County listed are not all-inclusive, but we hope through increased awareness and education, the value and preservation of open space and significant sites will occur.

A powerpoint presentation

Treasures of Pinal County

Prepared by the Parks, Trails, Open Space & Public Lands Committee of Pinal Partnership.

If you wish a presentation of this informative program to your group, organization or school, please contact:

www.pinalpartnership.com

PO Box 904
Florence, AZ 85232

Discover important environmental, cultural and recreational sites in Pinal County

The Treasures of Pinal